

DUKE
DIVINITY
SCHOOL

THEOLOGY,
MEDICINE,
AND CULTURE

TAKING OUR MEDS FAITHFULLY?

CHRISTIAN ENGAGEMENTS WITH PSYCHIATRIC MEDICATION

Friday, March 3

- 9:00 Welcome and Introduction
- 9:15 Medicating the Soul: Why Medication Needs Stories, John Swinton
Respondent: Kara Slade
- 10:45 The Goals and Limitations of Psychopharmacology: A View from the Apostle Paul, Susan Eastman
Respondent: Eric Johnson
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 That Jagged Little Pill and the Counter-Politics of the Community of the Expelled: A Sacramental Assessment of Psychiatric Medication, Therese Lysaught
Respondent: Tomi Oredein
- 2:30 Empirical Perspectives on Psychiatric Medication Use, Ryan Lawrence
Psychiatric Medications in American Christianity: An Overview, Warren Kinghorn
- 3:45 Modern Technological Imaginaries: The Brain and the Device Paradigm, Jeffrey Bishop
Respondent: Gerald McKenny
- 5:00 Adjourn

Saturday, March 4

- 8:00 Breakfast and Discussion of previous day
- 8:30 "As One Infirm, I Approach the Balm of Life:" Psychiatric Medication, Agency, and Freedom in the Psychology of St. Thomas Aquinas, Warren Kinghorn
Respondents: Beth Cantrell, Brett McCarty
- 10:15 Concluding Discussion
- 12:00 Adjourn

This project is made possible by a grant from the McDonald Agape Foundation

